He was a pastor for 13 years, and it was on a trip to Kenya to meet his first Compassion child that God called him to this ministry. Gerald Lorenzo

Compassion Graduate

Raised in a dangerous neighborhood in Santo Domingo, and abandoned by his father when he was only four years old, his childhood years were marked by difficulty and heartache. His mother worked hard to provide, but there was simply not enough money for basic necessities. When his mother learned about Compassion, she immediately enrolled him. At six years old, he received a sponsorship into the program and everything started to change.

With the provision of nutritious food, education, and other physical needs, Gerald began to flourish. After graduating high school, he went on to receive a bachelor's degree in business management.

He is currently pursuing an associate's degree in Paralegal Studies. He also graduated from the Public Policy Process program at the Leadership Institute in Arlington Virginia. He plans to pursue further studies and earn a Juris Doctor from a Law School in the United States. He lives with his wife Vanessa and his first daughter Valerie and his second daughter Victoria in Fort Lauderdale, Florida.
